Dear Mr Wood,

Kindly let my brother the bearer of this letter have the box of Persian silver coins which Mr Newell has left for me.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr. David:

I think awhile ago you telephoned me about the remainder of the Sassanian coins that you held. One of our members might buy these if he could get them cheap enough. If you could bring them up and let me know the lowest price you would take, I will see if we could not put some deal through.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. David:

I have just heard from our member. He has recently bought another hoard of Sassanian coins, possibly part of the hoard that you got part of. He is not especially anxious for your pieces but he might consider buying them at 10% over silver value.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG
